

Ninety members of Penner family gather for reunion at Coyote Springs

Submitted by Dorothy Penner

ELBOW — During the weekend of Aug. 4 to 7, around 90 descendants of former Elbow residents Abe and Lizzie Penner met at Coyote Springs Campground south of Elbow.

Seven of the nine Penner siblings were present (from eldest to youngest): Ernest, Kipling, Sask.; Lorraine Schinold, Cornie and Henry, who all reside in Moose Jaw; Olga Comeau, Rolling Hills, Alta.; Tilly Finch, Red Deer, Alta. (deceased April 26, 2017); Johnny, Choiceland (unable to attend); Louella Liebig, Red Deer, Alta.; and Diane Cunningham, Birsay.

Lorraine's son Douglas came from Nova Scotia and Ernie's son Rick came from British Columbia. Relatives from many points in Saskatchewan and Alberta were present.

Friday evening was a

"meet and greet" time with a wiener roast and watermelon, etc., for dessert. Saturday daytime was free time and many different things were done, but all gathered for a deep-fried turkey potluck supper back at the campgrounds. Marshmallow roasting, camp fire, visiting and picture taking filled the evening.

A pancake and sausage breakfast was served Sunday morning. The 50/50 draw took place and the bidders at the silent auction took their treasures home. During the afternoon the former farm sites of Abe and Lizzie, Henry, Cornie and the Dean yard were visited.

After returning from the yard site visits, Tommy Schinold offered the seniors a pontoon boat ride. It was enjoyed immensely!

Fishing, music and boating were activities of the weekend along with lots of visiting.

The children spent lots of time with the toys, sand and the playhouse. Another potluck supper followed the main events of the day.

We extend our appreciation to Jack, Bob, Linda, Eleanor, Earl, Harry and June who came to visit on Saturday and Sunday. We were able to catch up on community news and learn about everyone's family.

Some folks left early for various reasons and by noon on the 7th we had all moved out from the campground after saying our goodbyes. Thanks to everyone for coming and participating in all the events of the weekend; to be a success everyone is included.

Cornie's family was host family this year and in 2020 the Schinold family will be hosting the next reunion.

Until we meet again, we wish you all the Blessings of Peace, Happiness and Good Health!
